Hey ya'll!

Ya'!!! It's our one year anniversary! We made it!

Can you believe it's been a whole year of Bless Box?? Last year, I started Bless Box, wanting to share more with you, and send you my favorite picks in health, beauty, skincare and more. I had hope and faith in the vision, but I couldn't do anything without each and every one of you. You're the reason why I wanted to start Bless Box and you're the reason I'm able to keep on sharing and spreading my blessings. <3

It has always been my dream to share my blessings with others. Over the past year, Bless Box has been able to give back to charities close to my heart, which is more than I could ever ask for! As we move into another year of Bless, and keep growing, I can't wait to partner with more charities and nonprofits to impact lives.

There's been a lot of hard work and love put into Bless Box! I've said it before, big dreams take big work! Each month, it means so much to me to see my dreams in action through your lovely comments, pictures, and unboxing videos. You warm my heart so much and I can't wait to share another year (and more) with you!

For the month of December, I've created a special selection of my current favorite winter essentials to keep you cozy, healthy, happy and beautiful through the cold weather. From holiday parties, to snow days, and early sunsets, this is a gorgeous time of year and I wanted to send you the perfect goodies to make you feel just as gorgeous.

And finally, I want to express the biggest thank you to everyone who has made Bless Box a reality. From my amazing team who work so hard every month to create the perfect boxes, to you my wonderful subscribers, thank you soooo much! I couldn't do this without you!

Cheers to another year of Bless Box with you!

XOXO,

Sazan

1 Skinn Cosmetics, Eyeshadow Palette

Something Metallic | Retail: $22.50

Learn more at skinn.com

As much as I love the bright warm tones of this season, there's something so captivating about the icy blues and whites of winter. This palette is the perfect way to bring the two together! This Skinn Cosmetics palette is talc-free with light reflecting pigments and a great color payoff, so I'm super excited to try this out for a holiday party this month!

Saz Tip - Before using any palette, I like to use my arm as a swatch to see how these colors look on my skin, and which color combinations will be the most flattering! What's working for you?

Feeling like an ice princess? Use the medium blue on your lid and create a frosty smoky eye with the darkest blue. Since these colors are pretty buildable, you can use these to create a simple look or go for something more dramatic.

2 Maybelline, Unnudes SuperStay Matte Lipstick, Fighter

Something Statement | Retail: $9.49

Learn more at maybelline.com

Ya'll know I love a good matte lip and I'm super obsessed with Maybelline's new line of Unnudes! This warm nude is the perfect cinnamon-inspired shade to match any holiday look perfectly. Plus, since this is a 16hr long lasting formula, you can go caroling, drink hot chocolate, and never worry about your lipstick flaking off or fading.

Saz Tip - Want something a little extra? Smooth a clear, shimmery gloss over this shade to give it a holiday sparkle.

If you're still nervous that your lipstick will fade or run, use a neutral lipliner around the outer edges of your lips and softly blot before applying.

3 Laura Geller, Easy Illuminating Stick

Something Shining | Retail: $26.00

Learn more at laurageller.com

It's time to glow!! I loooooove highlight. This Illuminating stick is a quick and easy way to add a little dimension and sparkle to your face. What I especially love about this illuminator is that it's super long wearing and oil-free, so you'll get the perfect amount of shine without worrying about your makeup fading or sliding halfway through the day.

Saz Tip - Apply this product to the top of your cheekbones, cupid's bow, forehead and along the bridge of your nose. This will add a nice glow and create dimension to your face.

Try this product on bare skin, beneath your makeup, to create a lit-from-within, subtle shimmer that looks totally natural.

4 L'Oreal Paris, L'Oreal Color Riche Matte Lipstick

Something Creamy | Retail: $8.99

Learn more at lorealparisusa.com

I'm totally in love with this creamy lipstick! Many matte lipsticks can feel dry (or even sticky) but this formula keeps your lips looking smooth and kissable, while giving you that gorgeous matte look. I literally couldn't believe how soft my lips felt! I picked out a few of my favorite colors for the holiday season and I'm sending you one! Which one did you get? I would love to know what you think!

Saz Tip - Apply this lipstick starting from the center of your upper lips to the outer edges, following the natural contour of your mouth. Repeat on your bottom lips and gently blot to remove any excess lipstick.

Show me your favorite holiday look, using this lipstick! Just tag us with #readysetbless and #blessbabe so I can take a peek! <3.

5 Wen, Winter Cranberry Cleansing Conditioner

Something Cleansing | Retail: $40.00

Learn more at wen.com

With the harsh winter weather, it's extra important to make sure that you're conditioning and hydrating your hair consistently, as well as getting rid of the unnecessary buildup that can come with using a lot of products. I'm loving adding this Wen cleansing conditioner in my haircare routine! The crisp scent puts me in just the right mood for the season and makes my hair feel fresh and clean.

Saz Tip - Since this cleansing conditioner has a pretty thick and moisturizing formula, I use it about once a month. This keeps my hair thick and moisturized, but prevents my hair from feeling too weighed down.

You can even use this as a mask! Disperse product on wet hair, concentrating on the ends of your hair, and leave it on for 3 - 5 minutes for best results. Make sure to rinse thoroughly!

6 Wen, Ultra Nourishing Intense Body Treatment

Something Protective | Retail: $80.00

Learn more at wen.com

My skin can get so dry in the winter! I hate having dry and cracked skin, so I'm all about finding the best moisturizers to fight the effects of the cold weather. The Wen Ultra Nourishing Intensive Body Treatment is a great way to make sure that you're moisturized without feeling greasy - this formula absorbs right into your skin and works wonders to make you feel wonderful.

Saz Tip - Apply the lotion to problem areas (like elbows & knees) or anywhere else on your body right after you hop out of the shower. The hot water will open up your pores and make it the perfect time to moisturize.

Don't forget your feet! It may be winter, but spring and summer are sooner than you think and making sure that your feet are well-moisturized during the winter will prevent cracked heels and rough skin once the weather warms back up.

7 Primal Kitchen, Chocolate Hazelnut Bar

Something Yummy | Retail: $3.00

Learn more at primalkitchen.com

The holidays are so busy! With so many holiday parties, family events, and so much going on, it's too easy to forget to take care of yourself. Don't get me wrong, I love some good holiday cookin'. But it's also important to make sure that you're staying healthy! This Primal Kitchen Chocolate Hazelnut bar is super yummy way to make sure you're getting all of the nutrients your body needs right now, while still indulging in a little chocolate.

Saz Tip - Need a little pick me up while you're holiday shopping? Bring one of these along! These bars are packed with collagen, protein, and fiber, so they're perfect for after a long day.

Try eating these with some dried fruit - they'll boost your energy and add a little more sweetness to fill that craving.

8 BLESS, Gift Card

Something to Give | Retail: Priceless

Learn more at blessbox.com

This is the season of giving! Spread your blessings and give the gift of Bless Box to someone special. <3
